On stage, double-breasted is not only a sight—Kristy's beautiful 6-foot, 46-string harp and Ardith's striking flamed-back cello surround Josh's drum set—they are also a synergy of musical power and beauty in harmony.

Art galleries. Museums. Rock clubs. Theaters. Living rooms. Their music lends itself uniquely to each audience and venue. Written by each of the three members, the songs are a wonderful juxtaposition of their classical training infused with their love of pop and rock music. Just as each member is a songwriter, each member is also a lead vocalist in the group.

By partnering with the fundraising website Kickstarter, double-breasted was able to harness the loyalty and support of their fans to help finance the costs of recording and producing their latest recording, an EP—"Suit Yourself."

Recorded at the Pigeon Club in Hoboken, NJ, this collection of songs is their strongest to date. It is clear that each detail—from the songwriting through the mastered recording—was carefully looked after. In a time where "good enough" recordings can be made using samples and presets, this recording is something special. All of the sounds on the record are made by the raw beauty of acoustic instruments and voices.

Self-proclaimed "couture rock," the group first formed in 2001. The three met at The College of New Jersey while earning their Bachelors of Music degrees. Since that time, they have released a full-length record, "Who Will Love You?"; a holiday single, "Holiday Sparkle"; and many covers and other surprises on their YouTube channel.

Be sure to catch their live show in the New York / New Jersey area and don't miss their new EP "Suit Yourself" available on iTunes, CD Baby, and doublebreastedmusic.com today.
